THE SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

"THE HAVERSACK."

[From "The Land We Love" for April.]

"Our next incident comes from Boston, Massachusetts! Who can doubt our loyalty any longer, when we are in correspondence with that loyal and rebel hating city, which has never nurtured and fostered more than three or four rebellions of its own. The testimony of our correspondent accords with the experience of Southern soldiers in Northern prisons. He states that when he was in the hands of soldiers, he was well-treated, but that it was otherwise when guarded by local militia. We have heard a gallant Major say that when he was guarded by the command of a wounded officer, he was humanely treated; but every barbarity was practiced by "prison guards" and such like trash. Our only hope of the restoration of good feeling is through the influence of the honest, fighting men of the two opposing sections. The malignants are those who kept out of harm's way when bullets were flying. To this sentiment echo answers "spoons"! We will give extracts from the Boston letter, in the words of our correspondent:

"A few days after the battle of Chancellorsville, Col Stevens, of the Federal Army, and myself, were in an hospital, as prisoners of war. The Colonel was mortally wounded and was kindly cared for by our brothers in gray. I can never forget the kindness that was extended to us, especially by the Chaplain of the gallant 3d N. C., the Rev. Geo. Patterson. This gentleman prayed for us and read to us out of the book of life, and did all that he could to comfort us. Col. Stevens soon died, and as much respect was shown to his remains as could be expected under the circumstances. Some days after the burial, Mr. Stevens, the father of the Colonel, came for his body. In answer to a question, Mr. Stevens said that he was from Massachusetts. Mr Patterson shook him by the hand and said, "I was born in Boston, Massachusetts; my father is a native of Greece. I have an aged and widowed mother in Raynham, Massachusetts. Go and see her. Tell her about me; she does not know that I am alive." Dr. Butler, of the Army in gray, was also very kind to us. He was a true gentleman and an excellent Surgeon.—Whatever I can do, in word or deed, shall be done for the Chaplain and the Surgeon, and for the boys in gray, who treated me kindly.

In relation to my stay in Dixie, as a prisoner, I can honestly say that I received as much kindness as any reasonable man could expect, considering the means my captors had: when I was turned over to the "stay at home infantry," the home-guards, the treatment was rather a little severe for the stomach's sake. I did not expect any better from Dick Turner and his bummers, but I was treated far better by the brave grays of Lee's household, those who could act and not play the soldier, than I had at all expected.

We will here interrupt the narative to inform our correspondent that those who treated him so cruelly, are now "persecuted Southern loyalists". If he will attend some of these "loyal league" meetings he will find some of his old tormentors, but he will find none of the boys in gray, who treated him kindly, not one. But to proceed with the narrative:

"A few days after the affair at Winchester, Va., (19th September, 1864,) having been ordered to bring in the wounded from the battle field, I came across a poor fellow lying close to a tree, severely wounded in the breast. As all the ambulances had left the field, I told a woman and her daughter to take him to their house and treat him kindly, and I would call again. They did so, and I took as good care of him as though he had been my own brother. I bought jellies and delicacies for him, and got our Chaplain and Surgeon to attend him. Finally, when he died, I got some of my men to make him a respectable coffin, and, with my own hands, made his grave in the Cemetery at Winchester, Virginia, and with the aid of a few of my men, I buried him decently. I then put up a headboard on which I cut his name, company, regiment and date of his death and so on. I then opened my Bible, read a chapter and made a prayer in the presence of a dozen of the citizens of Winchester. The inscription is still, I suppose, over the grave.—George Hannah, of Talladega, Color Corporal, Company B. 5th Alabama Regiment, Rodes' Division, Early's Troops, Ewell's Corps.

I had noticed him in the battle, and knew him when I found him to be the man who remained after his regiment reluctantly left the field. He stood alone, waving his flag defiantly at us; there were some fifty men with me, not more than a hundred yards off. I said, as near as I now recollect, "Great God, boys, don't shoot, don't shoot that color Bearer, it takes centuries to produce such a man"! He was shot, I think, by some one of the 122d New York, a few moments after I spoke. There was a young man by the name of Joseph Wilson, belonging to the same village in Alabama, who was kindly cared for by me and who knows of my kindness to Hannah. Mr. Wilson got well, and I suppose is still living.

First Lieutenant James Burns, of the 52d Virginia Regiment, was wounded in the stomach, in the same engagement. I had him carried under a large oak tree out of the sun. I did all that I could to relieve his sufferings. Before he died, he requested me to take his diary and letters to his father, near Mount Jackson (or Roseland). I told him I would carry out his wishes. A few days after, when near Mount Jackson, I tried several times to deliver the package, but was prevented. Once I crawled up to within a few hundred yards of Mr. Burns' house, but I was fired upon and had to retire. I finally left the diary and package with a young lady named Haymaker, living just on the edge of Winchester, who knew the family of Mr. Burns, and who promised to deliver them.

JAMES J. WRIGHT."

SPORT THAT DESERVES ENCOURAGEMENT.—A chopping match for forty dollars and the wood cut came off at South Bend, Indiana, on the 25th ult., the contestants being a French Canadian named Mazor and one assistant on the one side, and two men on the other. The race lasted five hours, and was won by Mazor and assistant. Four men followed the choppers and split and corded the wood cut. The winning party cut eight and three eighth cords, their opponents cut seven-eighths of a cord less, and Mazor alone four and three eighth cords.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 6, 1867.

"RECORDS."

The Standard makes a great flourish of trumpets over certain extracts from the Sentinel of 1866 and 1867. We acknowledge our obligations to that paper. Those extracts contain nothing which we did not honestly believe at the time of its utterance. We generally endeavor clearly to express what we mean, and what we say we always stand up to and are willing to abide by.—We never recant our opinions and eat our own words, for the sake of paltry and selfish personal or political gain. We never lead others into difficulty and then basely and cowardly betray or desert them. We affect no new zeal for the colored race, for the purpose of gaining their votes, now that they have the privilege of voting. We endeavor so to act in our capacity as public journalists as not to draw down upon our heads the scorn and contempt of honest men, who despise hypocrisy and treachery.

Again we repeat, that the Standard is welcome to all it may make out of these extracts. As we utter no set of sentiments to-day, that we may discard to-morrow, we have neither qualification or retraction to make. On the contrary, we are pleased to find, on re-reading them, that they contain much salutary counsel, which, had it been followed, would have redounded beneficially to the peace of society and the cause of constitutional government. This, however, we will say, that no honest or truthful man would have perverted the obvious meaning of many of these in the manner that the Standard has done. That, however, was to have been expected. You cannot "make a silk purse out of a sow's ear."

While on the subject of records, we may as well call attention to the following elegant bits of history. Will Holden stand by his record? If he can stand by all its shifting phases, he will have to display the agility of a much more youthful sinner than he really is:

"We hold that as no State could originally have been forced into the Union, none can be forced to remain in, or rather be prevented from going out. Heaven forbid that such an extreme resort should be presented to us as the only alternative against aggressions upon our rights.

This is no time to dispute about terms.—If gentlemen do not like the word secede, and if we cannot consent to use the word revolution, let dissolution be the substitute for either or both."—Holden, Dec. 4th, 1850.

"It is sufficient for us to say that we hold to the right of secession as an original pre-existing reserved sovereign right."—Holden, Jan. 15, 1851.

"If a Black Republican or sectional President shall be elected in 1860, we will go with the South—we will stand side by side with the sons of Virginia and South Carolina, as our ancestors did at Yorktown and the Cowpens, and we will do it, clinging to the constitution and despising the forms of a vicious, oppressive and usurping Union.—That will be its character under Black Republican rule, and for one we will never bow our head to its degrading yoke. We mean what we say. We have considered the whole subject calmly, and we are prepared for the consequences."—Holden, Jan. 11, 1860.

"We know no party on the question of slavery. We stand, as we have always stood, by the vested rights and the vital interests of North Carolina. Patriotism, in our judgment, begins at home. Our primary allegiance is due to North Carolina."—Holden, Jan. 11, 1860.

"THE OLD UNION.—We concur with the Western Sentinel, that "no matter how much we may have loved the old Union and the government of the United States, while it was administered according to the Constitution and the laws, that Union is now severed forever, and the government has become an engine of oppression in tyrant's hands."

"There are traitors to the South in Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, but we trust there are none in North Carolina. If there are, let them beware! He that is not for the South in this contest, is against it; and he who would encourage our deadly enemies in the effort they are making to trample us down and destroy us, deserves to die a traitor's death.—Holden, July 24, 1861.

"As soon as Lincoln called for troops to make war on the South, we denounced him as a usurper, and turned our back on the old Union without end. We did this, too, with the most entire consistency, for WE HAD ALWAYS HELD THAT THE STATES HAD A RIGHT TO SECEDE FOR CAUSE."—Holden, Oct. 30, 1861.

"We repeat, we must fight. There is no other way to peace but by submission to Abraham Lincoln. Who thinks of that? Are we ready to swear to his government? It is not the government that it was, but a RANK AND BLOODY USURPATION."—Holden, Feb. 27, 1863.

"Our secession rulers would have subjugation, and now let them take the consequences."—Holden, April 29, 1865.

"Who is responsible for the severance of a happy brotherhood? Bad men—designing men—SMALL—ambitious men—desirous of rule."—Holden, May 11, 1865.

"UNION LANDMARKS."

5. The right of the States to determine for themselves the question of suffrage.

6. Unqualified opposition to what is called negro suffrage."—Holden, 1865.

"We tried to SAVE SLAVERY, but the Secessionists wouldn't let us."—Holden, 1865.

Now, is'nt this a pretty fellow to prate about records!

WE WERE in error, on yesterday, in stating that R. H. Battle, Jr., was one of the Commission on War Claims, appointed by the Governor. R. H. Battle, Esq., Secretary of the Life Insurance Co., is the appointee.

NEW YORK last year had 191 incendiary fires.

SCIENTIFIC FARMING.

The prejudices of Southern planters against scientific or "book farming," may have been allowable under our former condition, but the circumstances under which they are now placed demand a totally different course. The price of labor in future will render necessary the introduction of every means for the improvement of the soil and labor-saving implements.

Science and art must therefore be brought into requisition to effect these improvements. Planters must be taught the constituent properties of the various soils on their farms, what they need to fertilize them, when and how they should be cultivated, and what implements should be employed in the production of the different species of crops. Draining, ploughing, fencing, &c. all require scientific information, and the use of the most improved implements and plans.

To insure success, as a general principle, the small farm system, and the rotation of crops and resting, must be adopted. The paucity of means at the command of Southern planters will require the cheapest and most effective methods of improvement, and hence the necessity for small farms and the four-shift plan.

Our planters should therefore supply themselves with the most approved books on the science and practice of farming, and every farmer should take a good farmer's journal. Besides this, agriculture as a science should be taught in all schools of all grades. Agricultural societies and lectures should be established in every county, and the strength and intellect of the State should devote itself to this great work.

GEN. ROBINSON.—We have heard the rumor, for several days, that Brevet Major General Robinson, who was understood to be second in command to Gen. Sickles, and whom he had appointed to the command in this State, would not return to this post. The Progress, of yesterday, states that it learns that Gen. Robinson has been granted leave of absence for three months, after which he will return to his regiment.

We hope, therefore, it will be the pleasure of Gen. Sickles to bestow the appointment upon Col. Bomford, who is one of the best specimens of a soldier we have ever seen.—We but express the universal sentiment of the people of the State, who have any knowledge of the character and bearing of Col. Bomford, in the desire for his appointment. Strict and unbending in the execution of orders and in the fulfilment of his duty, he never forgets the amenities and courtesies of the gentleman, nor the promptness, magnanimity and bearing of the soldier.

DEATH OF JUDGE CALDWELL.

The Salisbury Banner announces the death of the Hon. David F. Caldwell. He died in that place, on Thursday. After months of very feeble health, he was stricken down, on Tuesday morning last, by paralysis, and lingered up to 2½ o'clock, Thursday, when death closed the scene of his earthly existence.

Judge Caldwell was one of our men of mark. The bench of the State never had on it a more upright, fearless and conscientious Judge. He leaves behind him a record of unsullied official and personal integrity, and of exceeding public and private usefulness.

WHEN Charles Francis Adams was on the eve of his departure to the court of St. James, in the spring of 1861, he received from Secretary Seward certain instructions for the regulation of his conduct as minister there. The instructions were read to President Lincoln, and were approved by him before their transmission to Mr. Adams. We append those of them declaratory of the status of the seceded States: Said Mr. Seward and President Lincoln: "You will all the while remember that those States are now, as they always heretofore have been, and notwithstanding their temporary, self-delusion, they must always continue to be, equal and honored members of this federal Union."

Gen. Sheridan's arbitrary action in New Orleans, in the removal of several prominent officials, has created much excitement there. The Times refrained from assisting to spread the news, as it would but have "added to the excited state of feeling already prevailing." It makes no allusion to it; and the Bee is also silent. The Crescent says:

"The order excited wide spread feeling and comment throughout the city. The specific causes of the sudden changes are not stated; but it is presumed the action of Gen. Sheridan is based upon a general purpose to fill important offices with men of pronounced sympathy with the authors of the military government. The new Attorney General, Mr. Lynch, held the same position here under the Banks regime. Mr. Heath, who succeeds Mr. Monroe, is a merchant, of Union antecedents. Mr. Howe, the new Judge, is a lawyer, and only for a few years a resident of this city."

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—"Rebels" and "rebellion," "traitors" "and sympathy with treason," may be good catchwords to rally a party upon. But we inform the Chronicle that their spell is exhausted. The people of this country understand that the legislation of Congress makes the plain issue whether the Government is to be revolutionized or not, by clothing Congress with the power to declare "null and void" the constitutions of the States. Even timid Republicans are learning that it is better to be classed with "rebels" by partisan slanderers, than to sustain consolidationists who would govern the country by a Congressional directory. That is the significance of the Connecticut election.—Intelligencer.

DEATH OF GEORGE WYTHE RANDOLPH.—We announce with the most profound regret the death of this distinguished Virginian and peerless gentleman. He died on Wednesday, at the residence of his brother, THOMAS JEFFERSON RANDOLPH, of Albemarle, in the fiftieth year of his age, after a lingering illness of many months. He was buried at Monticello, and was the worthy descendant of that illustrious statesman by whose side he has been laid. Mr. R. was at one time Secretary of war of the Confederate States.—Rich. Times.

The progress of the registry in Washington city, shows distinctly the purpose of the great mass of the whites to abstain from voting, and leave the municipal government to the management of the negroes.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION AT THE CLOVER HILL PITS.—SEVENTY PERSONS KILLED.—About half past two o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, an explosion occurred in the Bright Hope mine, at Clover Hill pits, which killed seventy persons.

The following letter from Captain Cox, manager of the pits, gives the main facts in regard to the loss of life and state of affairs there at 9 o'clock yesterday morning:

CLOVER HILL PITS, April 4, 1867, 9 o'clock A. M.

D. S. Wortham, Esq.:

Dear Sir—When the pit bottom was reached yesterday, it was ascertained that the lumber house in the pit, which contained some powder, was on fire. I endeavored to get the men to put it out, which, no doubt, could have been done; but they feared the danger of another explosion, and were unwilling to work. The pit has again been examined this morning, and the fire is so small that it could be managed if the work men were willing to risk the danger. Under all circumstances I have determined to save the pit by closing both shafts. We are now engaged in this work. All the men, about seventy in number, and all the mules that were down in the pit, are, of course, lost. The bodies cannot be recovered until the fire is extinguished and the pits repaired. Yours, &c., H. COX.

P. S.—About twenty of the men were white, and the rest colored.

At latest accounts none of the bodies had been recovered, but every effort was being made to repair the pit and recover them.

It is supposed the explosion was caused by the neglect of the gasman, Mr. Marshall. It is the duty of the gas man to go down into the pit and purify the air. He can tell by the guage upon his Davy lamp what is the pressure of gas in any portion of the pit. It is alleged that in this instance Mr. Marshall was drunk, neglected his duties as purifier, and therefore the gas accumulated and was set fire to by some of the lamps.

[The above cause is only a supposition. As every one down the pit was killed, most probably the real cause will never be known.]

As soon as the report that an explosion had occurred became general, the relations of those who worked in the pit flocked to the mouth of the shaft, and then ensued a most heart-rending scene, for all had to mourn the loss of husband, brother or friend.

It is thought the damage done to the mine is slight. The Directors of the Clover Hill Company will make a visit of inspection to the mines to-day, leaving on a special car at eight o'clock.

It is supposed that most of the deaths were caused by suffocation from "damp black," as the shafts were immediately closed to prevent their taking fire. This damp black is an impure gas which is caused by an explosion, and will suffocate all who have to breathe it in a few minutes.

The mine in which the explosion occurred was one of the main ones, and was sunk five years ago. It was always regarded as unsafe. The explosion occurred eight hundred and sixty feet from the surface.—Richmond Times.

CERTAIN RESULTS OF GOVERNING THE SOUTH BY MILITARY FORCE.—In proposing to govern the Southern States by military satraps the Radicals have undertaken a task that may be pleasant to contemplate, and may not be found very difficult to execute. For a season, at least, the system of Polandizing the South may work easily, from the very inertia of the Southern people. It has its drawbacks, nevertheless, and not the least of these is that the more the South is impoverished the worse it will be for the North and the worse for the blacks. The greater the oppression the stronger and more embittered will be the hatred of the victims for the oppressor. The strength of a republic lies in the unity of its people. Reduce eight millions of them to the condition of Helots; dictate to them what they shall and what they shall not do; insult them, harrass them, and at the same time tax them heavily; and the only result that is possible is there will be weakness where there might have been strength; virtual separation where there might have been cohesion more or less perfect. If it be the object of the Radicals to rule the South by force, they must have read history to no little purpose if they do not see that, sooner or later, force will answer it. They cannot violate the Constitution in one section of the country without violating it in all. If they can subjugate ten States to their arbitrary will, and govern them by military edicts, how long will the remaining twenty-six States be able to preserve their independence unimpaired?

Before long they will begin to discover that the "reconstruction" of the South, though it may serve to feed the revenge of the North, will carry with it, nevertheless, its pains and penalties. The greater prostration of the South the heavier will become the burthen of Northern taxation. Already trade languishes, the financial situation is precarious and the prospects for the future are dark and menacing. We are advancing from bad to worse, and this deplorable condition of things, as Mr. Lunt truly says, "has been brought about by those juggling mutations of policy which have been forced from time to time upon the popular majority by the factious leaders to whom they have been in the habit of looking for their opinions." By and by will come the crash, and then, if ever, will follow the popular upheaval. But the Union as we once knew it will be a thing of the past.—Baltimore Gazette.

ACCEPTING IT.—The Radicals cry out that the South will "accept" the military bill! This is adding insult to injury. The law is a force bill. It is peremptory. It orders elections—it makes military commanders the registrars, inspectors of elections, judges, everything. The people have nothing to "accept." They are only making the most of the thing—as the traveller does when the highwayman puts a pistol to his head and says, "Your money or your life." New Haven (Connecticut) Register.

A New York druggist was so overcome by excitement, on Tuesday, at witnessing the contortions of a patient afflicted with cramps, that he died almost immediately.

The salary of the Governor of the little province of New Brunswick is $50,000 in gold, or practically about three times that of the President of the United States.

An act of the legislature of the State of New Jersey went into effect a few days ago, prohibiting the whipping of children in the public schools.

A German girl, who died in Cincinnati the other day, after living on charity for a year, was found to have six thousand dollars hidden away in her room, fifteen hundred dollars of which was in gold.

A "dorg," a black terrier called Bill, was sold at public auction in Petersburg on Wednesday, to satisfy an execution in the hands of the Sheriff. The "dorg" brought twenty-three dollars.

Messrs. Merrick and Bradley, counsel for Surratt, have served a notice upon Judge Advocate General Holt for the production of the diary of John Wilkes Booth.

The inventor of the "walking doll," which was so fashionable a few years ago, made $75,000 by the patent.

At an election for Attorney General of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, held on March 31, ten registered negro votes were cast at Jacksboro', in Campbell county. These ten are the first negro votes cast in this State since 1834.

SENATOR WILSON IN PETERSBURG.

PETERSBURG, April 4.—Senator Wilson addressed a numerous assemblage in front of Jarratt's Hotel to-night. The colored people largely predominated in the crowd, and were enthusiastic in their applause.—He spoke over an hour, proclaiming himself entirely committed to Radical principles. He said slavery was the cause of the late war, and that neither North or South were guiltless in the conflict. A negro was now as much a citizen of the United States as the President, and was entitled to all the privileges of the whites, and he implored him to exercise his franchise as a free man. He disclaimed all intention on the part of the North to degrade and humiliate the South. The measures of reconstruction rather tended to elevate the lowly and oppressed.

CHARLESTON BOARD OF TRADE—GEN. SICKLES.

CHARLESTON, April 3.—The Board of Trade banquet last night was a brilliant affair. Gov. Orr made an elaborate speech on the situation, counselling a prompt compliance with the requirements of Congress.—Gen. Sickles also spoke, foreshadowing in general terms his policy as district commander. He has issued an order prohibiting the elections for the present, announcing that he will appoint sheriffs and other civil officers upon the expiration of the terms of the present incumbents.

GENERAL BANKHEAD.—A telegram from Memphis announces the death of General Smith P. Bankhead. He was a man of brilliant parts, and of a noble and chivalrous nature. His death will bring sorrow to many friends in this community.

General Bankhead was a son of the late General Bankhead of the old United States army. His mother was a Miss Pyne, sister of the Rev. Dr. Smith Pyne, of the Episcopal Church. He married a daughter of the late Wm. Garth, of this county.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

ADVICE TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.—Bennett, of the New York Herald, gives the following advice to the colored people of the South. He says:

"We advise the colored gentlemen of the South to pay particular attention in all their meetings and conversations to preparing for the next Presidential election.—They should start upon the right principle, and that is by nominating General Grant and General Lee for President and Vice-President. This will have more effect than any movement they can undertake."

Arkansas offers a premium of $40,000 a mile for the encouragement of railroad building in that State. Hence the transfer of the Mississippi terminus of the El Paso and Pacific road from St. Louis to Memphis.

The Louisiana papers call attention to the fact that one hundred and fifty steamers lie rotting in the Red river, and declare that unless New Orleans builds a road to the head of Red river navigation, she must "go under" commercially.

The Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Savannah, on Wednesday evening last, gave a banquet to the officers of the steamer Memphis, which arrived there with supplies for the suffering poor of the South.

A gallant writer has recently recorded his opinion to the effect that the virtues of the ladies exceed the magnitude of their skirts, and that their faults are as small as their bonnets. That chap is looking forward to female suffrage, and intends to run for some important office.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

KNOW THY DESTINY.

MADAME E. E. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives satisfaction concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she describes the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Address, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO, P. O. DRAWER 235, BUFFALO, N. Y.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Caroline Veney, a colored woman living at Mint Springs P. O., Augusta Co., Va., wishes information as to her daughter Jeanetta Veney, who is supposed to be somewhere in this State.—The advertisement is sent us by a prominent gentleman in Virginia, who feels a benevolent interest in the success of the mother's enquiries.

See Court advertisements from Camden county.

Jordan & Carr, 125 Sycamore Street, announce a large and commanding stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c., to which we invite the attention of the North Carolina trade.

The Raleigh National Bank makes its usual Quarterly exhibit,—a flattering one.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Kinchy Ann Edwards: Charged with receiving articles under false pretences, and vagrancy. Returned to the Superior Court.

Ben King: Making an exposure of his person. Fined $5.

A soldier was arrested for stealing money from the proprietor of the Circus, and turned over to the Military authorities.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of Simeon Johnson, charged with highway robbery, was tried this morning. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The felony is a capital one. Maj. R. W. York appeared for the prisoner and the Attorney General for the State. We learn that an appeal will be taken.

Dennis Jones, (colored,) convicted of manslaughter a day or two since, was sentenced to one month in jail and a fine of $50 and costs.

Jno. White, (colored,) convicted of larceny, was sentenced to two months in Jail, and $25 fine or two months in Work-house.

Cassiday and Gee, (white,) convicted of larceny, were each sentenced to one month imprisonment and fine.

Ben Weatherspoon, (colored,) convicted on several indictments, was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

SOMETHING ELEGANT FROM ST. LOUIS.—At the recent Bazaar held by the Southern Relief Association of St. Louis, Mo., a number of tickets in the grand raffle were generously presented to each Southern State. North Carolina was so fortunate as to draw some of the most elegant and valuable prizes, and the articles have been forwarded to a committee of gentlemen of this City, by Dr. Wm. M. McPheeters and Mr. Yore, of St. Louis, member of the Committee on Distribution, with instructions, on the part of the Association, that the proceeds arising from their sale, or other disposition, shall be devoted to the relief of the suffering poor in the State,—preference being given to the widows or families of deceased soldiers and to disabled soldiers themselves.

These articles are now on exhibition at the store of the Messrs. McKimmon, and the ladies and gentlemen of the City are invited to call and see them.

The principal article is a large and magnificent gentleman's Dressing Case, valued at $1,500, which was originally donated to the St. Louis Association by a French Company. The contents of the case, comprising ewer, shaving cup, and all the other necessary and minute appliances, are of solid silver and exquisite workmanship. Attached is a large and highly polished mirror, with a frame of silver—the whole making a most superb affair.

Besides this, there are several exquisite papier mache quartette tables, a case of jelly spoons of gold, several pieces of a silver tea set, an elegantly finished sewing machine, and several other handsome articles, which may be seen by any of our people who may visit the store of the Messrs. McKimmon.

The gentlemen to whom they were sent will soon designate a Committee, to make such disposition of these costly articles as will best promote the philanthropic and patriotic objects of the generous donors. We will take pleasure in referring to them again hereafter,—simply observing that the most popular idea, at present, seems to be the purchase of the Dressing Case, by dollar subscriptions, as a present for Gen. Lee.—This will subserve the double purpose of manifesting our affection for that great man and of contributing, at the same time, to the relief of the necessitous.

SOUNDS AND TONGUES.—This is esteemed as a great delicacy, and sure enough it is.—It is a rare dish for breakfast, properly prepared. Our friend W. Robert Andrews, the grocer, has a fresh lot on hand, as he has of almost any thing you can call for. We are indebted to him for a handsome dish of "Sounds and Tongues" for our breakfast.

GEN. SICKLES.—We learn that the rumor that Gen. Sickles is shortly to visit this City, to which we have heretofore referred, is a mistake. It is not probable that the General will be here shortly.

PETTIGREW'S BRIGADE.—The Richmond Times makes copious extracts from the recent excellent article of our correspondent "H." in vindication of the conduct of Pettigrew's Brigade, at Gettysburg, from the reflections of Mr. McCabe, and attributes it to Gen. Hoke. The gallant General is not the author. We hope that we violate no confidence in stating that the manly defence was written by our friend Col. G. H. Faribault, of the late 47th. N. C. T.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—A meeting of the representatives of subordinate Councils convened at Henderson on the 2nd., for the purpose of organizing a State Council of the Friends of Temperance. We learn that many of the most active and earnest advocates of the cause in the State were present,—including Major D. S. Hill, Rev. John N. Andrews, Rev. J. W. Wellons, Rev. Ira T. Wyché, Rev. Jas. F. Smoot, Wm. R. Hunter, Dr. J. B. Godwin, Rev. N. Harris and others. The Old Dominion was represented by A. W. Waddell, of Petersburg, President of the State Council of Virginia, and Rev. W. B. Wellons, of Suffolk, the first President of the new Order, and the present Corresponding Secretary.

The business part of the meeting was held with closed doors, and outsiders do not know what has transpired. The State Council has been fully organized. The following are the officers:

President—Gen. Robert B. Vance, Asheville.

Associate—Dr. John B. Godwin, Williamston.

Chaplain—Rev. John N. Andrews, Wilmington.

Corresponding Secretary—Major D. S. Hill, Louisburg.

Treasurer—Dr. W. W. Young, Henderson.

Conductor—Josiah Jones, Raleigh.

Sentinel—Major Exum Lewis, Weldon.

THE TOM CAT AND THE RAT.—While one of the Virginia Senators, during the late session of the General Assembly, was counselling that "we protest against Congressional action," a member, who possessed some talent in pencil sketching, drew a hugh tom-cat with a rat in his jaws; out of the rat's mouth proceeded the words, "I protest." The sketch was shown to a fellow Senator as a practical illustration of the speaker's advice, and the position of the South.—Nor. Journal.

GEN. GRANT AND THE REMOVALS BY GEN. SHERIDAN

WASHINGTON, April 6.

The Secretary of War has submitted to the President the correspondence between Generals Grant and Sheridan regarding removals. A special to the Baltimore Sun says that Gen. Griffin recommended the removal of Gov. Throckmorton, of Texas. Gen. Sheridan agreed with him, and suggested the removal of the Governor of Louisiana.

Gen. Grant, in reply, doubts the General's power to remove, and says that the removals must be made by Congress, or after trial under the sixth section.

GRAND CHARITABLE

PRESENTATION CONCERT,

IN AID OF THE Southern Orphan Association.

Incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia, January 30, 1867.

TO BE GIVEN AT THE

MARYLAND INSTITUTE

BALTIMORE,

APRIL 30th. 1867

THE PROFITS OF THIS CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TO THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION TO THE SUBJOINED ADDRESS, FROM THE OFFICERS OF WHICH, WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC:

"We, the Officers of the Southern Orphans' Association, for the maintenance and education of the destitute orphans of deceased Southern soldiers and sailors, earnestly solicit the sympathy and co-operation in our

Grand Presentation Concert,

Of all who desire to see the

enabled to receive and care for all the needy ones who seek its shelter and protection.

Thanking our friends for their past contributions and assistance, we again appeal to them to help us in a more extensive enterprise. It is the design of this Association to erect a for the orphans of the South, both male and female, on an extensive scale, in the city of Richmond, Virginia. As an inducement to have the building located there, the Common Council of that city have guaranteed a sufficient lot of land, in an elevated and healthful location, and will increase the quantity of land if needed.

It is with a confident hope in a favorable response to this appeal to a public which has never yet failed to sustain a charitable institution, that we have entered into an arrangement with Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co., No. 13 Holliday street, Baltimore, to organize a Grand Musical Presentation Concert for its benefit, and earnestly solicit the kindly aid and patronage of the public to ensure its success.

(Signed)
Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President.
Mrs. Dr. J. B. BEAN, Vice President.
Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Treasurer.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Cor. Secretary.
Mr. J. H. SCHIERS, Recording Secretary.
Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Financial Secretary.
H. C. DALLAM, Esq., Counsellor.
BALTIMORE, Feb. —, 1867.

TRUSTEES.

Mrs. CHAS. McCURDY, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Hon. JAS. LYONS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. JAS. THOMAS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. THOS. BRANCH, Richmond, Va.

It may seem unnecessary to add a single word to the above address, but calls upon the Institution have been so numerous and pressing, and the struggle through which it is now passing to widen the circle of its charities is of such an arduous nature, that the management cannot too strongly urge upon the

everywhere, an active participation in this additional attempt to alleviate the sad condition of great numbers of helpless children, rendered thus by the terrible war through which we have passed. And, assuredly, whatever may have been the relative political views of ladies and gentlemen heretofore, all must agree that the children referred to, could not, by any possibility, have had any agency in bringing about their present and are suitable objects for the charity of all persons of whatever shade of political opinion. The

DEPLORABLE AND DESTITUTE CONDITION,

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

which they now more particularly seek to establish and endow, will be of incalculable benefit by providing not only food and raiment for these helpless ones, but likewise solid and thorough education, thus qualifying them for Future Usefulness to Society at Large.

In order that this appeal may be effectual in enlisting the active interest and co-operation of all classes of persons everywhere, we have concluded to issue for the Grand Presentation Musical Concert,

500,000 tickets at the nominal price of $1 each—a single ticket entitling the purchaser to a gift—there being one gift to every ticket. The gifts are as follows:

HEAVEN.

Beyond these chilling winds and gloomy skies,
Beyond death's cloudy portal,
There is a land, where beauty never dies,
Where love becomes immortal.

A land whose light is never dimmed by shade,
Whose fields are ever vernal:
Where nothing beautiful can ever fade,
But blooms for aye, eternal.

We may not know how sweet the balmy air,
How bright and fair its flowers;
We may not hear the songs that echo there,
Through those enchanting bowers.

The city's shining towers we may not see
With our dim earthly vision,
For death—the silent warder, keeps the key
That opens the gate Elysian.

But sometimes when adown the Western sky
A fiery comet lingers,
Its golden gates swing inward noiselessly,
Unlocked by unseen fingers.

And while they stand a moment half ajar,
Gleams from the inner glory
Stream brightly through the azure vaults afar,
And half reveal the story.

O, land unknown! O, land of love divine!
Father, all-wise, eternal,
O'erguide those wandering, way-worn feet of mine
Into those pastures vernal.

JOHN RANDOLPH AMONG THE BOYS.

The correspondent of the Central Presbyterian furnishes some reminiscences of his school days more than fifty years ago. The celebrated John Randolph, then at the zenith of his power as a leading member of Congress, had three wards (nephews) at the school (that of Rev. Drury Lacy, Prince Edward county, Virginia,) at which he used to be a frequent visitor. The writer says:

"It was Mr. Lacy's custom to hear his boys recite their Latin and Greek grammar lessons before breakfast, and I have known Mr. Randolph more than once to come from Bizarre, two miles, and enter the schoolhouse by sun up. At nine o'clock the school was formally opened, when all the boys read verses about, in the Bible, until the chapter or portion was finished. Mr. Randolph seemed always highly pleased with the exercise, read his verse in turn, and with Mr. Lacy sometimes would ask questions. On one occasion, while reading one of the books of the Pentateuch, he stopped a lad with the question:

"'Tom Miller, can you tell me who was Moses' father?'

"'Jethro, sir,' was the prompt answer.

"'Why, you little dog, Jethro was his father-in-law.'

"Then putting the question to four or five others by name, not one of whom could answer, he berated them soundly for their carelessness and inattention in reading, saying:

"'When you were reading last week, William Cook read the verse containing the name of Moses' father, and have you all forgotten it already?'

"Just then a young man caught the name, and, unable to repeat the verse of the Bible, repeated a part of a line from Milton—'The potent rod of Amram's son,' &c.

"'Ah,' said Mr. Randolph, 'that is the way you learn your Bible—get it out of other books—what little you know of it—and, with as exceedingly solemn manner and tone, added: 'and so it is with us all—and a terrible proof of our deep depravity it is, that we relish and remember any thing better than the Book.'

"The very utterance, simple as it was, filled every one with awe, and made him feel guilty, while at the same time it imparted a reverence for the Bible which was never felt before, and which, from one mind at least, will never be effaced. Mr. Randolph was so pleased, however, with the young man who quoted from his favorite author, that in a short time—as soon, perhaps, as he could get it from Richmond—he presented him with a beautiful copy of Milton's Paradise Lost, with a suitable inscription in his own elegant handwriting."

A BEAUTIFUL PRAYER.—At an Israelite Sunday School Festival in Cincinnati lately, the occasion being a celebration of the return of the Jews and the restoration of their worship under Judas Maccabeus, the following prayer was made by Rev. Dr. Lilienthal, a Jewish Rabbi:

"Father in heaven! We, the parents of these children, are leading them before the throne of thy eternal grace and mercy, to intrust them to thy parental care and love. As thou hast been with us, so be thou with them, and accept the prayers of their innocent hearts! As thou hast permitted us to understand and comprehend the principles of truth, justice, liberty and universal charity, so grant them thy spirit, that they may learn to appreciate their value! As thou hast guarded us like a true and faithful shepherd, so lead them on the path that they may find favor in thy eyes, and be an honor to us, to society and to our country. Teach them to shun error, to abhor vice and to live a life that promises a rich harvest of joy and blessing. Give them the spirit of the Maccabees, that they set principles over frail and momentary advantages, and the glorious time we are celebrating to-day may be renewed by them and with them. They love Thee, O God, these children; they love Thee, and wish to obey Thy word and Thy command; grant them, therefore, their supplication; grant the prayers which the fathers and mothers, for the joyful future of their children, are sending up to thee: for in thee we put our trust, we and our children, forever and ever. Amen."

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for such purposes, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
